

Media Release
June 15, 2016

---

PORT OF CHELAN TO HOST PORT SIDE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT LUNCH

---

The Port of Chelan County will host an informational lunch at Noon on June 28, 2016, at the El Abuelo restaurant, 601 South Mission Street, Wenatchee, Washington. This lunch is free and open to the public. It is designed to inform about Port and other economic development projects and activities in Chelan County and Pangborn Memorial Airport. The Port holds quarterly luncheons in different communities within Chelan County to inform the public about Port activities and to gain feedback from its constituents

Topics to be discussed include: Update on transactions at the Peshastin Mill Site, a report from the City of Wenatchee on south end planning outcomes and the new waterfront hotel, a Pangborn Memorial airport update focusing on commercial passenger performance in 2016, providing a runway construction update, and air service development efforts. There will also be time for questions and an open discussion. The Port requests RSVP's to Cami at cami@portofchelancounty.com by June 24th.

Please direct questions to Craig Larsen, Business Development Director, at craig@portofchelancounty.com or call Craig at 663-5159.